

Nite Line Guest Line-up for February 4- 8, 2019

Nite Line broadcasts live Monday through Friday on WGGG-TV from 8 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. The program features local and/or nationally known guests who share their testimonies and talent. Our goal is to be an inspiration to our viewers as well as inform them of Christian and community events in the upstate.

Monday, February 4, 2019: Tonight on Nite Line Pastor Keith Kelly welcomes Pastor Asa and Debbie Dockery from World Harvest Church North in Blairsville, Georgia to discuss Debbie's contributions to Dr. Tracey Mitchell's new book, The Invitation to Intimacy with God. The Dockerys share how this devotional guides readers into a deeper relationship with the Lord and addresses spiritual topics such as peace, prayer, and forgiveness. This program also features southern gospel music from 2-R-More, a trio from Inman, South Carolina.

Tuesday, February 5, 2019: Pastor Bill Montgomery welcomes Rev. Chris Thompson, the president of Holmes Bible College in Greenville, South Carolina, to Nite Line. Tonight Rev. Thompson is joined by some of the students at Holmes to share how this school helps prepare its students for work in ministry. Holmes Bible College Ensemble performs music on this program.

Wednesday, February 6, 2019: Tonight Dave Walton welcomes Stan and Melissa Nolt of Fountain of Life Christian Ministries to share how their ministry's new drug rehabilitation facility in Costa Rica helps women struggling with drug addiction. Redeemers of Faith, a southern gospel group from Clinton, South Carolina, sings throughout the evening.

Thursday, February 7, 2019: It's Ladies' Night on Nite Line as Mary Sloan and Toni Suchka welcome Narvis Hart, Karen Boone, and Kristie Howell Mills to discuss adoption. Tonight Karen Boone shares how the Lord enabled her to adopt three children, and Narvis reveals how she helped Karen adopt her third child. Kristie Howell Mills sings on this program and discusses her recent adoption.

Friday, February 8, 2019: Gwen and Wade Hall welcome tonight's Valentine's couple and good friends Pastors Bill and Ann Critser to Nite Line to share how they met while they were students at Clemson University.
