

Nite Line Guest Line-up for March 4- 8, 2019

Nite Line broadcasts live Monday through Friday on WGGS-TV from 8 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. The program features local and/or nationally known guests who share their testimonies and talent. Our goal is to be an inspiration to our viewers as well as inform them of Christian and community events in the upstate.

Monday, March 4, 2019: Tonight Dante Thompson welcomes Pastor Daniel Roberts of New Hope Bible Holiness Church in Greenville, South Carolina to share how Skyriders Street Ministry works with Carolina Faith Riders to minister to the lost throughout the state. Pastor Roberts also provides insight into ministering to people with drug addiction. Mark Dubbeld Family, a southern gospel singing group from Montea, Virginia, sings throughout the evening and lets viewers know what they have coming up with their ministry.

Tuesday, March 5, 2019: Scott and Patti Lusk host an evening of music and ministry on Nite Line. Tune in tonight as we welcome Counterflo for a special concert.

Wednesday, March 6, 2019: Dave Walton welcomes Dr. Candice Smithyman of Freedom Destiny Church in Orange Park, Florida to discuss the book she co-authored with her husband, Soul Transformation: Your Personal Journey. Rev. Jon Simone of Spartanburg, South Carolina reveals how Promised Land Prison Ministries helps bring inmates to the Lord through their revivals. This program also features southern gospel music from The Bledsoes of Dobson, North Carolina.

Thursday, March 7, 2019: It's Ladies' Night on Nite Line tonight as Mary Sloan and Toni Suchka welcome Sarah Bair, Rita Bair, and English Helms.

Friday, March 8, 2019: Tonight TV 16 pays tribute to Ann Critser with an encore presentation of a Nite Line about The Holy Land. On this program, Gwen and Wade Hall welcomed Pastor Bill and Ann Critser for an in-depth discussion on Israel, and Forrest and Phillips ministered in music throughout the evening.
