

Nite Line Guest Line-up for April 22-26, 2019

Nite Line broadcasts live Monday through Friday on WGGG-TV from 8 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. The program features local and/or nationally known guests who share their testimonies and talent. Our goal is to be an inspiration to our viewers as well as inform them of Christian and community events in the upstate.

Monday, April 22, 2019: Join Pastor Keith Kelly tonight on Nite Line as he welcomes Jeffrey McCall back to the program to discuss his new memoir, For Such a Time: From Transgender to a Son of God. Jeffrey's brother, Caleb McCall, joins him to reveal how the Lord delivered him from drug and alcohol addiction and led him to direct Be the Bush Ministries, a Christ-centered drug and rehabilitation program in Manchester, Tennessee. Jeffrey and Caleb's father, Jeff McCall, joins his sons to share how he gave his life to Christ while he was in prison and discusses how he spreads the Gospel in prisons today. This program features the singing of Leah McCall, Jeffrey and Caleb's step-mother.

Tuesday, April 23, 2019: Pastor Wally and Rhonda Odom discuss the importance of forgiveness as they welcome Kimberly Hardman and Daniel White to Nite Line. Singer and Songwriter Joy Holden of Inman, South Carolina returns to the program to minister through music this evening.

Wednesday, April 24, 2019: Tonight Pastor Annie Broughton welcomes Tom Donnan, the author of the Christian novel, One Door Between Us, to share how the Lord led him to become a writer and encourage Christians to draw closer to God. Dr. LaMarc Lucas of Winning in Life CFC in Anderson, South Carolina returns to the program to share testimonies from his recent healing crusade. Kenny and Jamelle McKenzie share how diabetes has affected Kenny's health and how they are trusting the Lord to provide for his medical needs. This program features the music of Gospel True Notes of Travelers Rest.

Thursday, April 25, 2019: Tonight on Nite Line, Mary Sloan and Toni Suchka welcome and Tammy Carpenter, the author of Church Hurt Healed Me, and Sherry Damron of Vidalia, Georgia for an evening of music and ministry.

Friday, April 26, 2019: Join Gwen and Wade Hall for a night of music and testimonies on Nite Line.
